The Gifts of Law and Gospel

Scripture is rich in law and gospel and as we know, we need both to live a balanced life. Our scripture readings today remind us of the beauty of God's law. Psalm 19 tells us that God's law is perfect, trustworthy, right and radiant. God's ordinances are sure, righteous, precious, and sweet and fear of the Lord is pure and enduring forever and ultimately leading to the great reward. God gives us law because of His great love for us. Just as parents have rules for their children to protect them and keep them safe, God's law is for the good of His children.

Law is for our own good, but we are imperfect and fail at keeping it. But...because of God's great love for us, He also gives us the gospel...the Good News of salvation through Jesus Christ. How great is His love for us!

Jesus read from Isaiah, "The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because He has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to release the oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." Then Jesus states, "Today this scripture is fulfilled in your hearing." We hear, we believe and we are saved through the Good News of Jesus Christ.

During the past week and a half, the world has watched the terrible devastation and tragedy in Haiti. It is impossible to watch the pictures that are televised on the news and not be affected by the suffering of the people, especially the children. We have also witnessed lawlessness and violence and the misery it brings and once again, we also witness God's merciful hand through the many people throughout the world who have opened their hearts to help the victims in this disaster area. We see people offering practical help providing medical treatment, food, shelter, water, transportation, and provisional order. Donations of money and supplies are being delivered to this poor country despite numerous obstacles. Just as our scripture tells us in 1 Corinthians 12:12-31, people are using whatever gifts that God has given them to reach out to others. Most of all, many prayers are being offered for all the people...servants and victims...and we are assured that our loving God hears them all.

Closer to home, God has answered our prayers in the safe return of our brother in Christ, Ben Mason. Praise God! The hope and glory of God is eternal and, even in the midst of such terrible devastation in Haiti, we have also witnessed people giving thanks to God and trusting in His law and the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Thank you, God, for loving us so much and giving us your gifts of law and gospel. Amen.
for His Glory - Gloria Borchert

Welcome, Guests!

We are grateful that you have remembered the Sabbath to keep it holy, and chose to worship with us.

We welcome little children as we worship! In respect for others, you may bring your restless child(ren) to our well-equipped, staffed nursery during the service. Our speaker system provides excellent audio of the service in the Narthex and nursery. —Thank you.

Here at Faith Community Lutheran...we almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans, but usually our services are a “blend” of old and new music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of “Word & Sacrament.” Therefore, “God’s Word” is held in high esteem as we follow the Scripture readings and the sermon with our Bibles open.

FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week, including the baptized of all ages. As we begin our worship, all are invited to “examine themselves” (1 Cor.11:28) during the Confession as we prepare to receive the Word and Holy Communion.

As we are anointed with oil at Holy Communion today, we are reminded that we are all in need of healing in one way or another. Sometimes, it’s our bodies that need healing; sometimes it’s our feelings that are hurt; sometimes it’s our thinking that needs healing; sometimes it’s a relationship that is hurting; sometimes it’s our faith in God that needs healing. If you wish to share a prayer concern with us at that time, you are more than welcome.
